

If you recently received a new ID card in the mail but have made no plan changes, rest assured that you can safely replace your old one with this version. An administrative error triggered the new cards to be sent. Your benefits, eligibility, and all other coverage options will remain the same.